DISAPPOINTMENT PROVESTOO MUCH

His Sweetheart Married to Another, Youth Commits

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, June 17.—As near as the truth as could be learned, Sterling B. Price, of Winchester, Ky., who shot himself dead in Central Park, near Swan Lake had come back from service in the Philippines and found his sweetheart married. In one hand he had a blue navy Colt; in the other a tender letter beginning "My Dearest," begging him—

Dearest, Oh, My Dearest," begging him—

"Please do not come to see me tonight. You know how hard it would be for me to say good-by.

"Last night I walked the floor and criod all night—I cried myself to sleep. But I slept scarcely an hour.

"I have no words left for our last 'good-by."

There were blurs made by water on the writing as if tears had fallen there and spread the ink on the violetscented blue paper.

This missive, which evidently had been what drove him to extremes, was addressed to Price in College Street,
Winchester, Ky, and dated 11:30
A. M., June 6.

"That was the morning after a graduation and alumni hop at Winchester of the Winchester Wesleyan College. Price was there," said V.

the morgue, to-day.
